

Early Elementary Teacher

A full-time teacher at IMS is responsible for maintaining a positive and appropriate educational environment in their classroom and executing a program that meets the intellectual and emotional needs of each child. It is expected that the first-grade teacher will collaborate with other teachers, specialists, and the Head of Lower School to teach an engaging curriculum and to fulfill IMS's mission of developing, in every child, their sense of compassion, honesty, and respect. It is expected that the teacher will engage with and contribute to an equity, inclusion, and belonging framework for instruction and assessment.

Early Elementary Teacher Role Responsibilities:

- Provide classroom education to the students of the Lower School
- Report on progress and development of each student at designated reported periods

Other duties include but are not limited to:

- Attending all professional development days and completing assigned trainings by deadlines as designated
- Regularly attending weekly faculty meetings
- Completing student progress reports by the designated deadline
- Holding student progress conferences with parents as designated
- Fulfilling supervision duty as assigned by the Head of LS
- Completing newsletter by designated deadline

Please send resume and application materials to Alex Hodosy. Candidates whose qualifications and experience align with the school's needs will be contacted.

Indian Mountain School seeks faculty and staff members who are eager to participate in an inclusive, respectful, and diverse school community. Candidates from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.